

Bard CENTER FOR CIVIC ENGAGEMENT

1. What values do you seek to uphold in your political life?

As Comptroller, but generally in public service, I seek to work with honesty and integrity. As the financial watchdog for the county, I must demonstrate through my leaderships that my office's work is done with the highest integrity, avoiding partisanship, subjectivity, or any statement that will risk the reputation of the Comptroller's office.

2. What are your policy priorities, should you be elected?

The Comptroller does not set policy. However, in the way that I approach this work, I will continue to prioritize transparency, ensuring that Dutchess County residents have opportunities to learn what's in the county's budget and the most recent audit reports.

The work of our office will likely continue to focus on big real estate projects and other capital projects. We may also do some innovative work on the use of artificial intelligence by the county.

What role do you believe the USA should play in the world?

3. Which of your policy positions are particularly relevant to youth voters?

4. Which of your policy positions support students and faculty at colleges and universities?
