

BA in Economics, Politics, and Social Thought

POLITICS

Overview

FALL	SPRING
Core: Greek Civilization Principles of Economics International Studies and Globalization Elective/German	Core: Medieval Literature and Culture Macroeconomics Comparative Politics Elective/German
Core: Renaissance Art and Thought Mathematics for Economists Policy Analysis Elective/German	Core: Early Modern Science Microeconomics Moral and Political Thought Statistics
Core: Origins of Political Economy Philosophy and Society Elective/German Elective/Internship	Core: Modernism Civic Engagement Elective/German Elective
Senior Thesis Research Colloquium Quantitative Methods Global and Comparative Politics	Senior Thesis Public Policy Elective/German Elective

Students complete the Language and Thinking Program at the beginning of the first semester.

Students spend 12-14 hours per week in lectures and seminars, and earn a total of 256 ECTS credits throughout the four-year program.