

Report of Professional Activities for the Academic Year: 2021 - 2022

Name:

Program:

Date:

I. Teaching and related activities:

Please list below all pertinent information of the following kinds: (A) courses taught; (B) supervision of senior projects, laboratory research projects, special projects, independent work, and field work; for senior projects list students and titles (C) moderations, advising, general, and departmental; (D) contribution to interdepartmental or multidisciplinary work; (E) any other relevant information.

II. Departmental and college responsibilities (service and accomplishments on committees; other departmental or college-wide responsibilities and activities):

III. Research, scholarship, and professional activities:

Please list here, identifying by category, all pertinent information of the following kinds: (A) research and scholarly works published during this period, (please include complete bibliographic information); compositions, exhibitions and installations; performances; (B) work accepted for publication but not yet published; (C) work completed but not yet accepted for publication; (D) work in progress during this period (please indicate its current status); (E) attendance and participation in professional meetings (please specify nature of participation); (F) lectures given outside the college; (G) grants, honors conferred and/or degrees received during this period; (H) any other relevant information.

IV. Participation in the local community:

V. Optional narrative account of professional activities:

If any aspect of your professional activity has not been adequately covered in Sections I-IV, please elaborate by giving, for example a description of your research interests and work in progress in terms of your discipline and in relation to your teaching your role and participation in your profession; your contributions to your department, the college and the outside community; any other matter you think relevant. If there were any events or circumstances in the past academic year that impacted your professional activities, please elaborate here.