

AH236 Critical Perspectives on Berlin's New Cultural Venue: the Humboldt Forum

Seminar Leader: Tarek Ibrahim, Stiftung Humboldt Forum im Berliner Schloss, Prof. Dr. Aya Soika

Course Times: Thursdays 14:00 – 17:15

Course Location: Humboldt Forum, Unter den Linden

Email: a.soika@berlin.bard.edu

Office Hours: by email appointment & Thursdays 11:00-13:00 (please get in touch beforehand)

Modules: Art and Artists in Contexts,
Methods in Social and Historical Studies,
Art History, Culture and Society

Credits: 8 ECTS, 4 U.S. credits

Course Description

Hardly any project has been more controversial than the rebuilding of Berlin's City Palace. Ever since its opening in 2021, the Humboldt Forum has brought in more than 2.5 million visitors, constituting one of the centrepieces of the capital's New Mitte. Yet, the newly opened cultural venue – which gathers five institutions under its roof – is still very much in the process of considering how to address the challenges that arise from the contradictions between its form (a hybrid of Baroque and modern) and its contents (serving as a home to and meeting place for the cultures of the world). Most delicate is its role as the new home of the Ethnological Museum (previously housed in Berlin-Dahlem) with collection histories that are often inextricably linked to European colonialism. The seminar provides an introduction to the history and current operation of the Humboldt Forum and to the various institutions and collections that it accommodates on more than 16.000 square meters. Furthermore, as a collaborative project with the Stiftung Humboldt Forum im Berliner Schloss, the class seeks to give students insights into the conceptualisation and planning of cultural events, exhibition projects and educational outreach. Members of the Humboldt Forum's team will introduce students to not only the building and its collections but also to their day-to-day tasks and overall aims.

Requirements

Academic Integrity

Bard College Berlin maintains the highest standards of academic integrity and expects students to adhere to these standards at all times. Instances in which students fail to meet the expected standards of academic integrity will be dealt with under the Code of Student Conduct, Section 14.3 (Academic Misconduct) in the Student Handbook.

Attendance

Attendance at all classes is a crucial part of the education offered by Bard College Berlin. To account for minor circumstances, one absence from AH236 should not affect the participation grade or require documentation. Beyond that, unexcused absences will affect the participation grade and you will be asked to make up for it by submitting a 800-word response related to the readings of the missed class. Bard College Berlin does not offer credit for any course in which a student has missed more than 30% of classes, regardless of the reasons for the absences, whether excused or unexcused. The full Bard College Berlin attendance policy can be found in the Student Handbook, Section 2.8.

Punctuality

Punctuality is also essential. Turning up late will therefore also affect the participation grade. For off-campus visits please make sure you depart early in order to reach the museums and please lock in your coats and bags before the beginning of class. The itinerary can be checked on www.bvg.de; in addition, it may be helpful to be equipped with a city map, digital or on paper.

Class Etiquette

In the case of unavoidable absences, a short notification via email sent before the beginning of class is appreciated. Please keep your bathroom breaks to a minimum. When off campus you should stay with the group while the conversation is still going on. Please do your best to stay focused on the object of our discussion: This includes listening to students' presentations and to our many seminar guests.

Weekly Readings

Weekly readings and other specific assignments will be confirmed in an email by the beginning of each week, all materials are uploaded on our class padlet. Please check your Bard emails regularly and read our emails carefully. Please also make sure you can access the padlet. Should you have any problems or not have received an email by Tuesday before our next class please get in touch with Aya as there might have been a glitch.

Assessment

The course assessment includes the overall seminar work (response papers, regular class participation, a short presentation and a final presentation) and the final project. See also “Grade Breakdown.”

Padlet Responses

Students are asked to submit weekly responses of 200 words each to be uploaded on the class padlet. Grading Criteria: Punctuality of Submission, Structure, Relevance to the topic and depth of analysis; Awareness of context and key debates.

Final Project / Essay

In addition to weekly responses, there is one major assignment for the course: your final project. Further instructions can be found below together with a preliminary list of project ideas:

1.)

Write up an exhibition concept for a show at the Humboldt Forum consisting of an outline of aims and objectives, a detailed structure and a list of display items with several sample wall and label texts.

2.)

Develop a future strategy for the building of the Humboldt Forum within its urban context and the City of Berlin, analyzing its Status Quo and making specific recommendations for the future development of the site and its potential uses.

3.)

Develop a future strategy for the Humboldt Forum (or more specifically: aspects of the cultural venue that we’ve talked about), taking potential collaboration partners into account / taking the challenges that have been identified into account / engaging with some of the texts that we have read.

4.)

Create a series of workshops, outlining aims and objectives, potential participants, a detailed week-by-week structure and specific contents of each session.

5.)

Write an alternative handbook of the Humboldt Forum that could serve as a manual for visitors (you can also create a film or an audio-tour, as long as it is accompanied by a written outline with transcription).

A preliminary outline of your final project is due by 4th December (Wednesday), midnight. The final, written-up piece is due 18 December (Wednesday), midnight. Projects are to be emailed directly to Aya Soika.

Your project's structure and contents can be discussed in individual meetings. Please note that prior consultation with the Bard in Berlin Writing Centre may be recommended. In principle, your submitted work should engage with relevant sources. The final project should also include references (e. g. in the form of footnotes), a bibliography and a list of illustrations.

Here are some basic points you should bear in mind:

Title and Topic: How does the title of your work as well as your introduction reflect your objectives? What is the aim of your project? Be as clear as possible about aims and objectives.

Background Research: How can you include references to some of the required readings from our course in a meaningful way? Have you researched your topic sufficiently? What kinds of sources have you found and where else could you try to find out more about the topics you discuss?

Facts and contextual information: Have you acquired sufficient foundational knowledge - e. g. are you aware of the necessary foundational information, relevant historical contexts and theoretical debates? Have you been able to acquire a sense of the relevant cultural and political debates or issues related to your project's topic?

Interpretations, comparisons and/or overview of scholarship: What kinds of approaches to your topic have you encountered so far? How would you distinguish them in terms of the questions they ask and the methods they apply? How does your own approach relate to them? Don't be afraid to engage with quotes and other references. These should be accompanied by an annotation providing the source reference.

Format: Your final project essay should be of circa 2.200 words length (+- 10%), including captions and bibliography. The referencing style should be consistent, the format should be double-spaced with 12-point font. Please include page numbers and a title.

Grading Criteria: Line of argument with regard to the question (organisation, coherence and execution of the argument); Awareness of context and existing literature on the topic; structure, quality of writing and format (proofreading; consistent use of annotations, bibliography & list of illustrations is desirable)

Policy on Late Submission of Papers

Any work that is submitted up to 24 hours late will be downgraded half a full grade (from B+ to B, for example). Work that is more than 48 hours late cannot receive a grade higher than C (see also policy on late submission in the Bard College Berlin Student Handbook) and must be submitted within four weeks of the deadline. Thereafter, the student will receive a failing grade for the assignment. Students are welcome to make an appointment to discuss essay assignments and/or receive feedback on class progress, oral performance and written work. They will also receive written feedback on their mid-term and final essays.

Grade Breakdown

Listed below is the percentage grade allotted to each essay, and to classroom participation and assignments.

Padlet Responses throughout Semester: 30 %

Participation (preparation, short presentations, questions, attendance): 30 %

Final Project Essay & Presentation: 40 %
