

FA326 Advanced Drawing: Drawing and Display

Seminar Leader: Lotte Leerschool
Email: l.leerschool@berlin.bard.edu
Office Hours: Friday 13:00-14:00 by appointment

Course Description

This advanced drawing course emphasizes process-based and experimental drawing. Through prompts, students will deepen their understanding of different relationships that open up when drawing: the interplay between the agency of materials and the manipulation of these through the use of tools, the connection of drawing to the (moving) body, as well as the limitation of and interaction with the boundaries of a page and the surrounding space. In the latter part of the course, the focus will shift towards reflecting on and editing (elements of) the drawings. This will be coupled with the exploration of different ways of installing drawing in space, considering the relationship to the viewer. Overall, this course embraces personal experiences, prioritizing making over the final image. The objective is to build toward an embodied knowledge that will serve as the foundation for individual and group conversations. Students should have prior drawing experience, curiosity, and a willingness to un- and relearn. Throughout the semester students will be allocated a dedicated studio space at the Direktorenhaus. By the end of the semester, each student will have the opportunity to present their drawings through a self-curated presentation or an installation at Monopol during the BCB Open Studios.

Requirements

Students are expected to:

- Turn off phones during class time.
- Initiate appointments with the Professor or arts staff outside of class time.
- Always allocate extra time for work preparation and clean-up for independent production.
- Respond to emails from their professors in a timely manner.
- Inform their professors at the beginning of the semester if photos of student's identity, artwork, works in progress are NOT to be taken and / or used for Bard College Berlin.
- Remove all artworks, art materials, and / or any personal belongings before the end of the semester. Failure to remove works or return spaces clean and empty may result in final grade penalization. Donating unrequested artworks and / or art materials is not permitted and will still be considered student property, expected to be removed by your inspection deadline. Please contact Studio Arts Manager Joon Park for more information: j.park@berlin.bard.edu

Academic Integrity

Bard College Berlin maintains the highest standards of academic integrity and expects students to adhere to these standards at all times. Instances in which students fail to meet the expected standards of academic integrity will be dealt with under the Code of Student Conduct, Section 14.3 (Academic Misconduct) in the Student Handbook.

Accommodations

Bard College Berlin is committed to inclusion and providing equal access to all students; we uphold and maintain all aspects of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and the ADA Amendments Act of 2008, and Section 3 of the German Disability Equality Act of April 27, 2002 (Federal Law Gazette I p. 1468). If you have a disability, or think you may have a disability, please contact the Disability Accommodation Coordinator, Atticus Kleen, (accommodations@berlin.bard.edu) to request an official accommodation.

Requests for accommodations should be made as early as possible to ensure adequate time for coordination and planning. Please note that accommodations are not retroactive and may require advance notice to implement.

If you have already been approved for accommodations with the Disability Accommodation Coordinator, please arrange to meet with me outside of class so that we can develop an implementation plan.

Students may face extenuating circumstances related to various personal or external factors, which impact their academic performance. While these circumstances often do not fall within the legal framework of Disability Accommodations, Bard College Berlin is committed to supporting students experiencing such circumstances. A student needing a short extension or a replacement assignment because of an extenuating circumstance is encouraged to make arrangements directly with instructors if possible. If further support is needed, please visit the Bard College Berlin Accessibility page. Questions about this process can be directed to James Harker (j.harker@berlin.bard.edu) or Maria Anderson-Long (m.andersonlong@berlin.bard.edu).

Attendance

Attendance at all classes is a crucial part of the education offered by Bard College Berlin. To account for minor circumstances, two absences from twice-per-week courses or the equivalent (e.g. one absence from a once-per-week course) should not affect the participation grade or require documentation.

- Punctual attendance of all classes is expected.
- Students who are more than 5 minutes late on more than two occasions will see a negative impact on their final grade.

- Tardiness of up to 15 minutes will only be excused if the instructor is notified by email at least 30 minutes prior to the start of class.
- Late or missing notifications regarding absences will affect the final grade, with missing notifications carrying greater weight.
- More than one unexcused absence will significantly lower the final grade for the course.

Bard College Berlin may not offer credit for any course in which a student has missed more than 30% of classes, regardless of the reasons for the absences. The full Bard College Berlin attendance policy can be found in the Student Handbook, Section 2.8.

Assessment

Assignments are due at the beginning of the class. Detailed information about assignments and projects will be explained in class. (Assignments and the dates described in this syllabus may be subjected to change by the instructor. Students will be notified of any changes to the syllabus in class.)

Basic art materials will be provided. Please be aware that some materials may need to be purchased directly by each student at their own expense, depending on the requirements for the personal project.

Policy on Late Submission of Artworks / Presentations

Assignments (artworks, essays, performances, oral presentations) that are up to 24 hours late will be downgraded one full grade (Example: B+ becomes C+). The Professor is not obliged to accept assignments that are more than 24 hours late. Where a professor agrees to accept a late assignment, it should be submitted by the new deadline agreed upon by both parties. Thereafter, the student will receive a failing grade for the assignment. Grades and comments will be returned to students in a timely fashion. Students may make an appointment to discuss assignments and feedback during instructors' office hours.

Students receive end-of-semester grades for their seminar work. Students are entitled to make an appointment with an instructor to discuss seminar participation, or may be asked to meet with the instructor at any stage in the semester regarding class progress.
