Course Description

This advanced studio art course is designed to cultivate technical and conceptual skills within the field of contemporary painting. The course places particular emphasis on ideas and practices relating to abstract painting, color, and materials beyond traditional paint on canvas, specifically textile-related materials. Students will explore colour through a wide range of materials and processes. Colour will not be approached solely through paint on canvas, but also through fabrics, found and raw materials, natural pigments, dyes, and self-made colours. The course encourages experimentation with different methods of producing, applying, and understanding colour, while considering the historical, cultural, and material contexts in which colours exist. Students will develop independent projects in shared studios. The aim of the course is to help students develop a broader and more critical understanding of colour, enabling them to make more informed and intentional decisions about why they use particular colours, how those colours function within their work, and what meanings they may carry.

Participants are expected to have prior experience in painting, a willingness to experiment, and be motivated to produce and critically discuss their work. Enrolment is limited to ensure ample studio space and sustained individual guidance. The semester culminates in the “Open Studios” exhibition at the BCB arts buildings at Monopol Berlin.

Requirements

Students are expected to:

- Turn off phones during class time.
- Always allocate extra time for work preparation and clean-up for independent production.
- Finish assignments and projects by the due date.
- Respond to emails from their professors in a timely manner.
- Initiate appointments with the Professor or arts staff outside of class time.

- Inform their professors at the beginning of the semester if photos of student's identity, artwork, works in progress are NOT to be taken and / or used for Bard College Berlin.
- Remove all artworks, art materials, and / or any personal belongings before the end of the semester. Failure to remove works or return spaces clean and empty may result in final grade penalization. Donating unrequested artworks and / or art materials is not permitted and will still be considered student property, expected to be removed by your inspection deadline. Please contact Studio Arts Manager Joon Park for more information: j.park@berlin.bard.edu

Academic Integrity

Bard College Berlin maintains the highest standards of academic integrity and expects students to adhere to these standards at all times. Instances in which students fail to meet the expected standards of academic integrity will be dealt with under the Code of Student Conduct, Section 14.3 (Academic Misconduct) in the Student Handbook.

Accommodations

Bard College Berlin is committed to inclusion and providing equal access to all students; we uphold and maintain all aspects of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and the ADA Amendments Act of 2008, and Section 3 of the German Disability Equality Act of April 27, 2002 (Federal Law Gazette I p. 1468). If you have a disability, or think you may have a disability, please contact the Disability Accommodation Coordinator, Atticus Kleen, (accommodations@berlin.bard.edu) to request an official accommodation.

Requests for accommodations should be made as early as possible to ensure adequate time for coordination and planning. Please note that accommodations are not retroactive and may require advance notice to implement.

If you have already been approved for accommodations with the Disability Accommodation Coordinator, please arrange to meet with me outside of class so that we can develop an implementation plan.

Students may face extenuating circumstances related to various personal or external factors, which impact their academic performance. While these circumstances often do not fall within the legal framework of Disability Accommodations, Bard College Berlin is committed to supporting students experiencing such circumstances. A student needing a short extension or a replacement assignment because of an extenuating circumstance is encouraged to make arrangements directly with instructors if possible. If further support is needed, please visit the Bard College Berlin Accessibility page. Questions about this process can be directed to James Harker (j.harker@berlin.bard.edu) or Maria Anderson-Long (m.andersonlong@berlin.bard.edu).

Attendance

Attendance at all classes is a crucial part of the education offered by Bard College Berlin. To account for minor circumstances, two absences from twice-per-week courses or the equivalent (e.g. one absence from a once-per-week course) should not affect the participation grade or require documentation.

Bard College Berlin may not offer credit for any course in which a student has missed more than 30% of classes, regardless of the reasons for the absences. The full Bard College Berlin attendance policy can be found in the Student Handbook, Section 2.8.

Students are expected to attend every class, arrive on time, and remain for the entire session. Being late can disrupt the class and affect everyone's learning experience.

If you expect to arrive late due to unavoidable circumstances, notify the instructor as soon as possible by email or WhatsApp, explaining the reason.

Arriving more than 15 minutes after the class has started will be treated as an absence.

Assessment

Students will receive a provisional midterm grade and a final grade for the course.

Students are expected to produce and present artworks or experimental studies that demonstrate a thoughtful engagement with colour as a central element of their creative process. A range of art materials will be provided; however, depending on the direction of individual projects, students may be required to purchase or source additional materials at their own expense.

Students are also assessed on their ability to work independently and responsibly. They will be graded on their ability to communicate with Professor as well amongst themselves. This also includes their ambition to create artworks as well as their willingness to budget their time for all requirements connected to this class. This assessment also includes preparation, production, and cleaning up of spaces used at Bard College Berlin

Policy on Late Submission of Artworks / Presentations

Assignments (artworks, essays, performances, oral presentations) that are up to 24 hours late will be downgraded one full grade (Example: B+ becomes C+). The Professor is not obliged to accept assignments that are more than 24 hours late. Where a professor agrees to accept a late assignment, it should be submitted by the new deadline agreed upon by both parties. Thereafter, the student will receive a failing grade for the assignment. Grades and comments will be returned to students in a timely fashion. Students may make an appointment to discuss assignments and feedback during instructors' office hours.

Students will receive feedback for their course work during and at the end of the semester. Students are entitled to make an appointment with an instructor to discuss seminar participation, or may be asked to meet with the instructor at any stage in the semester regarding class progress.
